FOR : Executive Officials, Heads of Councils, Collegial Bodies, R&D Institutes, STS Institutes, Regional Office Directors

FROM : LEAH J. BUENDIA, Ph.D.
Assistant Secretary for International Cooperation

SUBJECT : Call for Applications – Russia's State Atomic Energy Corporation
"ROSATOM" Scholarship Grants

DATE : 15 September 2020

We are pleased to inform you that the Russia's State Atomic Energy Corporation (ROSATOM) is offering five (5) scholarship grants for Filipinos who wish to pursue studies on nuclear physics and/or related fields in Russia for the 2021-2022 academic year.

ROSATOM or State Atomic Energy Corporation is a multi-industry holding with assets that ventures on power engineering, machine engineering, construction, isotopes for medicine, and nuclear and non-nuclear products. The Corporation has the largest foreign product portfolio for nuclear fuel cycle in the world and it is being implemented in 12 countries. Further, ROSATOM is a proponent for the best management practices in nuclear power utilization, nuclear power weapons industry, and nuclear safety.

Interested applicants should accomplish the online application form and follow the rules and procedures in applying for the scholarships. Please access this link: <https://future-in-russia.com/> for the application form and other necessary information.

For monitoring purposes, may we humbly request the applicants to inform us on their application. Also, should you have issues/problems on the application process please let us know so we can inform the Embassy of the Russian Federation in the Philippines about the concern. Kindly email my staff Mr. Paolo Samoza at samozapaolo@gmail.com regarding this matter.

Thank you very much.

Series of 2020

FOR : The PCAARRD Directorate and Staff

LILIAN G. BONDOD
Director

SUBJECT : Call for Applications for the Fulbright Advanced Research and University Lecturing Program AY 2021-2022

---

We are pleased to inform you that the AY 2021-2022 Fulbright Advanced Research and University Lecturing Program is now open.

Said Program, also called the Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program, is a scholarship opportunity for researchers and professors to implement their own research projects at American universities, non-profit research institutes, and government institutions. Scholarship grantees, in addition to conduct of research project, may also teach courses. Grants are awarded for a period of three to five months, covering travel, tuition, stipend, books, and professional activities, and health and accident insurance.

Eligible applicants should meet the following minimum requirements: (1) Filipino citizen; (2) with Doctoral degree or equivalent professional training or experience; and (3) proficient in English appropriate to the proposed lecturing or research project to be conducted in the U.S. Preference will be given to those without recent experience in the U.S. Those who have dual citizenship, are permanent residents, and/or currently studying in the U.S. are not eligible. All fields are eligible except medicine, nursing, engineering, applied mathematics, and applied sciences.

Interested parties may apply online at <https://apply.jre.org/fisp2021> on or before November 16, 2020. For queries, you may email the secretariat at fulbright@fulbright.org.ph.

Attached, for your reference, are the communication from DOST and the Philippine-American Educational Foundation (PAEF) which administers the Fulbright Scholarship Program. You may also visit <https://fulbright.org.ph/membership-program/fulbright-philippines-ay-2021-2022/advanced-research-and-university-lecturing-program/> for additional information.

Thank you and we would appreciate if you could share this announcement within your networks.
