Ma'am/Sir:

Warm greetings!

We are pleased to invite you to attend the Stakeholders' Consultative Meeting on Tuesday, May 13, 2025, at 8:00 AM onwards, to be held online via Google Meet. Your presence and insights are highly valued as we discuss key developments concerning our academic programs.

This meeting will focus on two significant agenda items:

- Proposed change in program nomenclature – From Bachelor of Science in Industrial Technology to Bachelor in Industrial Technology, in compliance with CHED Memorandum Order No. 13, Series of 2023. This revision affects the following major fields: (a) Automotive Technology, (b) Electrical Technology, (c) Electronics Technology, (d) Civil Construction Technology, and (e) Architectural Drafting Technology
- Proposal for a new degree program – Bachelor of Science in Petroleum Engineering under the College of Engineering.

Your presence and suggestions are very important in helping us improve our academic programs and better serve the needs of our students and the community. We sincerely hope you can join us in this meaningful event.

Please find attached the program details and the QR code to join the meeting.

Together, we can work as one community toward a better future. Thank you very much, and may God bless you always.

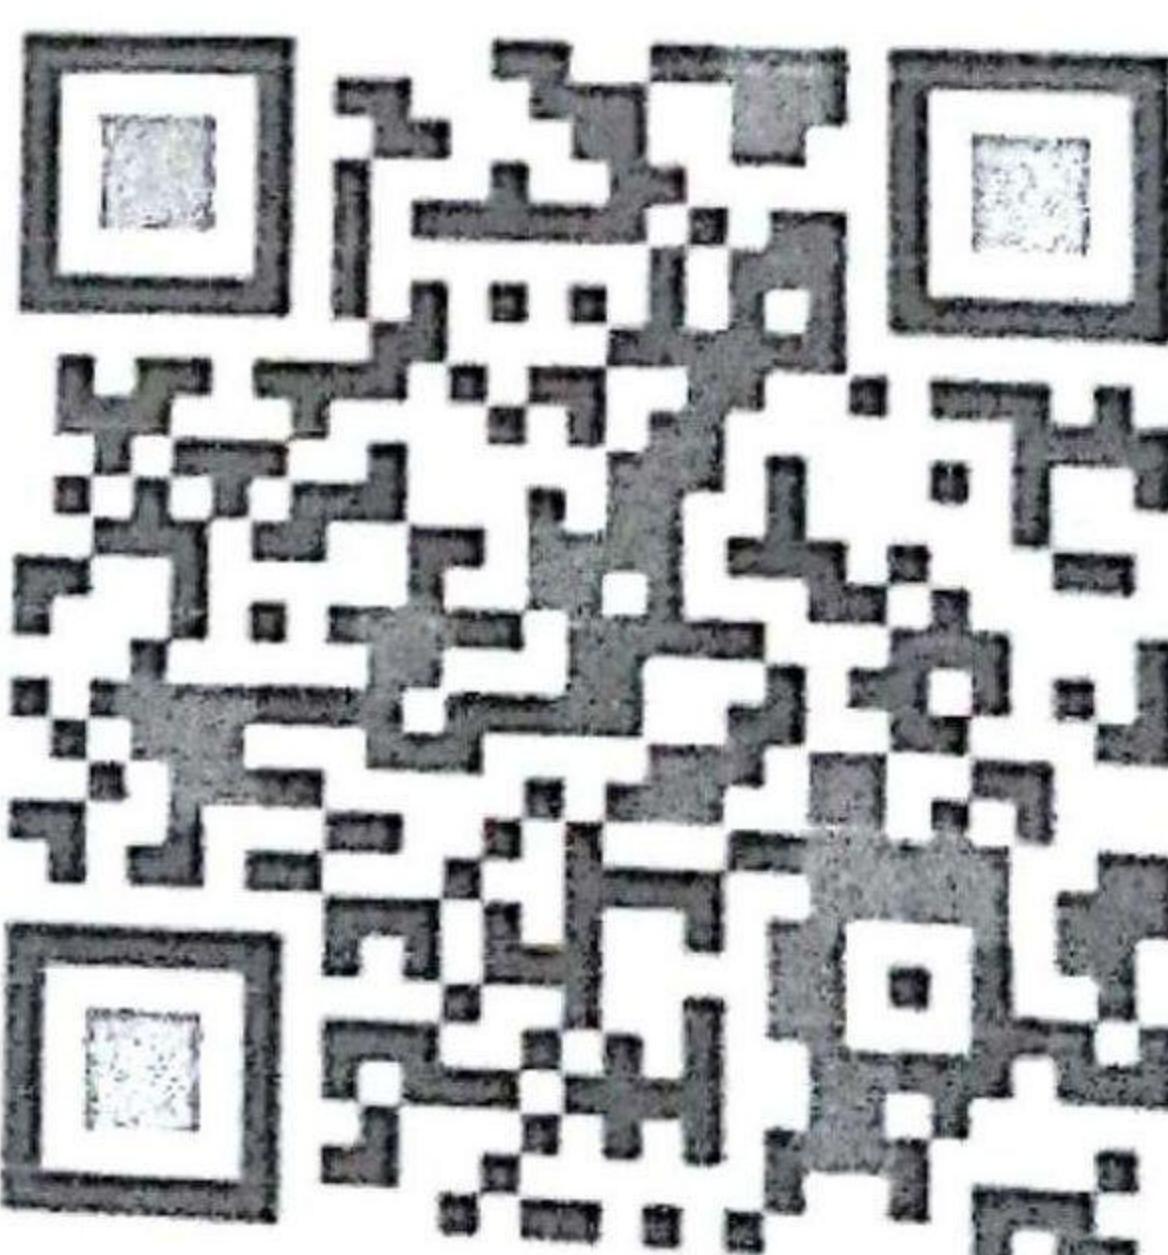

Respectfully yours,

CHARLIE J. MAGHANOY, EdD
Dean, College of Industrial Technology

LENMAR CATAJAY
Dean, College of Engineering
